1. Working Hours Policy

Standard working hours are 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday to Saturday. Employees are expected to maintain punctual attendance. Any changes to scheduled working hours should be approved by the reporting manager.

2. Leave Policy

Employees should submit leave requests in advance whenever possible. Emergency leave should be communicated to the reporting manager or HR at the earliest. Leave approval is subject to company requirements and applicable leave balances.

3. Attendance Policy

Employees must record attendance using the designated company attendance system. Repeated late arrivals, unexplained absences, or attendance irregularities may be reviewed by HR and the reporting manager.

4. Work From Home Policy

Work-from-home arrangements may be permitted based on business requirements and managerial approval. Employees working remotely are expected to remain available during working hours and maintain required productivity and communication.

5. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to behave professionally, respectfully, and ethically. Harassment, discrimination, abusive behavior, conflicts of interest, and misuse of company resources are not permitted.

6. Data Privacy & Confidentiality

Employees must protect customer, employee, restaurant, financial, and company information. Confidential information must not be shared with unauthorized persons or transferred to personal systems without approval.

7. Information Security

Employees must use strong passwords, protect company devices, avoid suspicious links or attachments, and immediately report suspected security incidents to the IT or security team.

8. Customer Data Policy

Customer information such as names, contact details, order information, and transaction-related data must be accessed only for legitimate business purposes. Unauthorized use or disclosure is prohibited.

9. Expense & Reimbursement Policy

Business expenses must be reasonable, supported by valid receipts where applicable, and submitted through the approved reimbursement process within the specified period.

10. Performance & Review Policy

Employee performance may be reviewed periodically based on responsibilities, business objectives, quality of work, collaboration, attendance, and other applicable performance criteria.

11. IT & Company Asset Policy

Company laptops, software, accounts, and other assets are provided for authorized business use. Employees are responsible for reasonable care of assigned assets and must return them when requested or upon separation.

12. Policy Violation

Violations of company policies may result in corrective action in accordance with company procedures and applicable law. Employees may contact HR for clarification regarding any policy.
